

Fort Plain Museum

Presents

1st Annual Conference

May 1-3, 2015

The Mohawk Valley played a key role in the struggle for American Independence. Join us at the Fort Plain Museum and discover the area's rich history.

Six Great Author-Historians!
Six Great Revolutionary Stories!

Saturday May 2, 2015

- Todd Braisted - "A hellish plan to go over to the enemy" The Revolutionary War Adventures of Lieutenant Edward McMichael
- Don Hagist - The Revolution's Last Men, the Soldiers Behind the Photographs
- Jack Kelly - Band of Giants, the Amateur Soldiers Who Won America's Independence
- James Kirby Martin - Forgotten Allies, the Oneida Indians and the American Revolution
- Bruce Venter - Col. John Brown and the Battle of Diamond Island on Lake George
- Glenn Williams - The Year of the Hangman, George Washington's Campaign Against the Iroquois

Friday May 1, 2015 - Meet & Greet Cocktail Hour with a presentation by Museum Chairman Norm Bollen - "Discovering Fort Plain"

Sunday May 3, 2015 - Guided Bus Tour of "Mohawk Country" historic sites

Nellis Tavern - Fort Klock - Van Alstyne Homestead
Isaac Paris House - Palatine Church - Stone Arabia Churches
Fort Plain Museum - Stone Arabia Battlefield
Klock's Battlefield - John Brown's Grave

For More Information Contact Brian Mack at 518-774-5669 or E-mail us at fortplainmuseum@yahoo.com